Whatever our experiences, one of the Psalms will talk about it, reflect upon it and give wisdom in dealing with situation. This little book is but a mere glimpse of its innate riches which will hopefully give you an appetite to investigate the beauty and majesty of the Psalms. Martin Luther said of the Psalms, Every Christian who would abound in prayer and piety ought, in all reason, to make the Psalms his manual. He adds The Psalter has been lauded and loved by many holy fathers above the other books of the Scripture; and, indeed, the work itself does sufficiently praise its Author. Nevertheless, we also must utter our praise and thanks for it. Inside we look together at: Psalm 62 - A prayer of Trust; Psalm 66 - A song of Joy; Psalm 94 - A prayer of Anger. Who amongst us has not experienced all three of these parts of life as a human? Come inside to see what the Psalms have to say, particularly in relation to living life for the glory of God!.
