Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Professor Knatschke: Selected Works of the Great German Scholar and of His Daughter Elsa Hansi is well known and well beloved by all the children of France and Alsace-Lorraine. For Uncle Hansi knows how to speak to them, and has taught them a great deal, while amusing them, through the artistic coloured sketches of his Histoire d Alsace. It is a history of Hansi s own country, and a masterpiece of humour. Another book on Alsace, Mon Village, with its alternately droll and pathetic pages, may be said to be full of laughter and tears. As for the coloured plates that illustrate the letterpress, they fetch high prices among connoisseurs. Few artists have so quickly risen to fame. This is because Hansi has devoted his genius as an artist and a writer to the service of his patriotic ideal. Born in Colmar, in Alsace, in 1873, Hansi went to school in the Lycee of his native town after the annexation of Alsace-Lorraine to the German Empire, and the main thing he learnt from his German...
