By Cedric Davis

Lulu.com, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Young black males are being killed in the streets everyday either by one another or the police. They have no direction or guide. Little black girls only want to be bad and the next twerk queen. The youth have no respect for their parents, teachers, the elderly, or themselves. Education doesn't matter to them but they want to live like they are rich no looking forward to tomorrow filling up the graveyard, jails, and prison younger and younger. What can I do alone, what can we do as a community to BREAK this vicious cycle and KEEP OUR YOUTH ALIVE AND OUT OF PRISON??? The time has come for us to put aside our petty differences and join together for the common goal of saving the black race by saving the black youth. It is time we begin to educate, encourage, enlighten, and empower our youth it is time we lead by example to build stronger, safer, untied communities.
