It is a fact, too little understood, that many of the ills that afflict mankind are directly traceable to the use of poorly prepared and unsuitable food. The poor cook is the modern Pandora, and her kitchen is the box from which are issuing dyspepsia, gout, rheumatism and a host of other evils. Your energetic business man, of happy mood and contented at home and abroad, will be found to have a good digestion; whereas, your sour, morose and irritable man for whom there is no music in this life, will as surely be found to be a miserable dyspeptic.
