cbb. Paperback. Condition: New. 52 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.1in. If you, a friend, or loved one have been incarcerated, it's normal to find yourself scared and confused. They and their family are anxious to do whatever they can to get themselves or the locked up individual out of jail. Ready Set Bail provides essential details, commonly not known by the general public, on how to secure and work with a bail bondsman, and get yourself or a loved one out of captivity as quick and cheap as possible. Get expert advice from Mr. Duncan, who has been in the bail bonds business for over a decade. He shares very practical advice, explaining all of the terminology from the most common issues to the most difficult decisions people face amidst troubling circumstances. If you, a loved one, or a friend has been incarcerated or facing jail time ask yourself these following questions: Do you know what type of bonds is available? Do you know what procedures are involved with working with a bail bondsman? Do you know the legal obligations the person who posts the bond faces? Do you know what potential problems the person out on bond and the bond poster face? If you answered NO to any of the above questions, then Mr. Duncan's book Ready Set Bail is an invaluable resource that will quickly teach you about the different types of bonds available, all the procedures involved, and also the legal obligations and potential problems facing the person who actually posts the bond. Avoid the pitfalls of bail TODAY, don't make these choices alone. Mr. Duncan's book Ready Set Bail will walk you through each step while focusing on key aspects of the process such as obtaining a bail bondsman, choosing the best bond available, and...
