

Destiny Unveiled

By Sylvia Clute

Hardback. Book Condition: New. Not Signed; In an age of terrorism, the accomplished attorney Christi Daniel desperately searches for better answers to our legal, governmental, and political systems, taking the reader on a journey from the voice of fear to the voice for love. Her mentor through the process, Founding Father George Washington, reveals a world in which harmony, balance and unity can save us from disaster. As Seven Spiritual Principles for Governing a People are unveiled, what seems impossible becomes tangible, within our grasp. Author Sylvia Clute presents a unified approach to law, government, and social order, based on the distinctions between love and fear, as each defines a distinct worldview. Destiny Unveiled is a significant revision and update of Clute's 1997 novel, Destiny , placing the story in the post 9-11 era. book.
